Maryam Mahmoudi Moghadam

is an illustrator and a Writer She does book, magazine illustrations and concept, background and character design for animation. she likes surreal, soft and colorful atmosphere and she enjoys playing with colors and she fascinated by the nature Now she lives in Istanbul and concentrates on her personal book and collection.

She lives in illustration like tree in soil

She is a member of SCBWI

She is an illustrator, Writer and writer from Istanbul

She was born in a lush and forest city in the north of Iran in 1986 in an artist family

She loves nature and forest and drawing since childhood and her inspiration is from nature and silence, and of course now her little three year old son is the center of inspiration for her stories.

She loves to imagine and create new visual and written worlds

Her tendency is towards surreal, delicate and colorful spaces, and she enjoys playing with colors. She uses any material necessary to convey her message, but she loves watercolor more because she is gentle and carefree like herself.

Also, she is proficient in digital techniques, and it is not easy to distinguish her manual work from her digital work

She started art with a degree in graphics and a bachelor's degree in visual arts.

She was employed as a teacher for a short period of time and then as a university professor, but because of her interest in illustration work and the large amount of time she spent working, she gave up her job as a teacher and spent all her time experimenting and making mistakes.

Since 2015, she started her professional career with magazines and worked on more than 15 books with different publications, and her works have been awarded in various exhibitions and awards from different countries.

Also, one of her hobbies is drawing watercolor portraits. In her opinion, human characters are the world of discovery and it is attractive to her.

She is founder of Magical illustration page in Instagram and she shares the works of the great illustrators of the world

And now she is focusing on her personal project as a writer and illustrator
